Thought “Fab, we can do Christmas after all, the NHS says so”? Please: think again.

CHRISTMAS BUBBLES: The reality

Unless everyone in your Christmas Bubble self-isolates for two weeks beforehand, there’s no way to make meeting up indoors for Christmas totally safe.

Please, please, stop and consider the risks. Is it really worth ending up with someone you love ill, or - worse still - dead? Or risking the lives of NHS workers treating someone that you infected with COVID19?

Vaccines are just around the corner… #WillItWait

Poster by @DrLindaDykes on behalf of the many front-line NHS workers who are terrified at the prospect of a Christmas-fuelled 3rd wave of COVID-19 at the height of winter demand on the NHS.
